BEACH IS ROBBED FOR SECOND TIME

Same Man Is Believed to Be Guilty of Both the Robberies.

For the second time in two weeks, robbers broke into Heavy Beach's salesrooms, 168 San Francisco street and stole a quantity of silver and silks Monday night.

Entrance this time was effected by breaking the plate glass door in the front of the store, and notwithstanding that a light was burning within, the burglars were not discovered while at their work and made their escape in the same manner as they entered, without a policeman guessing it. The burglars took all the silver in one showcase and a large quantity of silk handkerchiefs in another.

The robbery was committed by the same person or persons who broke into the place about two weeks ago, for Monday night's thief had the key which was stolen at the time the other robbery was committed. The first robbery was committed by breaking the rear transom and getting in over the door. That time the thief unlocked the rear door from the inside when he left, carrying the key away. Monday night, after trying the back door with the stolen key and finding that it was barred from the inside, as were the windows also, the burglar broke the glass in the front door and climbed in. The space through which entrance was made is small, showing that the robbers were committed by a boy or small man, which was the case the first time also, as the burglar left a boy's size cap the first time.

Between the times of these two burglaries, someone got into the chamber of commerce by crawling through a basement window and slipping upstairs to the first floor, and stole all the silks, silver and linen goods which Mr. Beach had on display there. Klein, Beach's Robber. Burglars broke into the home of D. Klein at 316 Texas street, Monday night and got away with a gold watch, $24 in cash and some studs and two rings. They pried open a back window with an ax. After leaving the house they threw a glass box in which the articles stolen had been kept, in the lot at the rear of the old Presbyterian church on Myrtle avenue and Kansas street.

Lawyer's Office Robbed. R. V. Bowden lost two suit cases as the result of a visit paid to his office in the State National bank building by burglars Monday night. They forced open the door of the office. Claudine Ecutia reported to the city detectives Tuesday that she had been robbed of $40 Monday night. She said that another woman had entered the house she occupied on South Stanton street near the corner of Seventh street and took her money, which was in a pocketbook.

AMUSEMENTS

STOCK AT EL PASO. Opening the El Paso theater for a summer season, the Myrtle Vane Stock company presented "Salvation Nell" to an appreciative audience Monday night. The play is the most pretentious that the company has yet attempted and a bit heavy for summer stock, yet the members of the company acquitted themselves with credit and Miss Vane was particularly good throughout. The cast requires the entire strength of the company and some quite elaborate stage effects, such as could not have been used at the Aldrome, which was the prime reason for the company's change from that place to the El Paso theater.

"Salvation Nell" is a play in three acts with 30 speaking parts. The scene is laid in New York's slums and it is a production in which Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske made such a hit last year in the metropolis. It relates the story of the life of a friendless girl in the tenderloin, her love for a worthless man, who effects her ruin and of her redemption by the Salvation Army in which she becomes a worker—known as "Salvation Nell"—and finally saves the man who has wronged her and sets him in the right path as husband. Verne Layton does the role of the lover. There are numerous tense, dramatic situations and passages, which a company less capable could do little but miss up. Miss Vane and company give a very satisfactory production. Bert Hadley gave an unusually good impersonation of Mal, Williams, of the Salvation Army.

Lloyd Ingraham, Mae Enderly and Gertrude Lawrence laid the parts that required the most effort and acquitted themselves well. Maude Monroe has a real good bit of work for the last act and does it well, as usual.

TWO VAUDEVILLE PLACES. Vaudeville is now running in two El Paso amusement resorts. The Aldrome opened a week's program of vaudeville last night, and at the Majestic the management began offering the Levy brothers' vaudeville offerings last night. The Aldrome will change to musical comedy with the arrival, next week, of the James P. Lee company.

CRAWFORD THEATER. "The Half Back" will be presented May 22 by the members of the El Paso high school for the benefit of the local dramatic society. Admission to the lower floor will be 75c, balcony 50c and 25c.

THE HIJOU. "War's Haven" the spectacular Kalem feature, will be exhibited again at the Elbow theater for tonight and tomorrow. Those who were unable to attend last night should not miss this last opportunity of seeing this masterpiece of production. The management is offering the program also includes one of Edison's dramas, presented by two public favorites, Mary Fuller and Marc Moberg.

EL PASO THEATRE. All this week, the World's Fair Stock company presents the famous production, "Salvation Nell" at the El Paso theater, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday. The night prices are 25c, 50c and 80c; the matinee prices 15c and 25c. The curtain rises at 8:30. The management ventures to say that few cities are as fortunate as El Paso in being able to see this masterpiece at popular prices. The company pays a heavy royalty for the privilege of producing it.

AT THE ALDROME. The Abbott de Fay vaudeville aggregation opened at the Aldrome Monday night for a week's engagement. Five acts are presented and the admission charge is only 5c and 10c. There will be a change of program Wednesday and Saturday. Seats are on sale at Ryman's. The James P. Lee Musical Comedy company will open at the Aldrome next Monday.

THE CRAWFORD THEATRE. Four reels of pictures are given nightly at the Crawford theater. The admission is only 5c and 10c. The ceiling is high and the building well ventilated and the management says it is furnished regularly. There is a continuous performance nightly from 7 o'clock, with matinee Saturday and Sunday.

HIDALGO AND LIBERTY. At the Hidalgo and Liberty theaters three new reels are shown every day. These are large, cozy and cool houses. The admission is only 5 cents.

CROP MOVEMENT IS ON ALONG WEST COAST

Guaymas, Mexico, May 14.—David Smith, of Guaymas, has severed his connection with the Mexican-American Smelting & Refining company and has purchased a ranch on the Yaqui river, near Esparanza. Mr. Smith bought the place with a growing crop which he will begin harvesting about the first of June.

A comparison of freight business during April this year with the same period of 1911 shows that in 1911 there was a total movement of 1655 cars and 1153 cars during April, 1912, an increase this year of 50 cars.

To date the Los Mochis valley has shipped 176 cars of tomatoes, and it is estimated that the remainder of the crop will approximate 80 cars. Cantaloupes will be shipped from the west coast by express in a very few days, and by the 29th of May earload shipments will be moving. From Los Mochis there will be about 20 earloads with probably 60 cars from Guaymas.

The garbanzo crop on the west coast promises to be the largest this year, being estimated at from 250,000 to 300,000 sacks, or about 60,000,000 pounds.

The Southern Pacific Navigation company's steamship "Luella," which was taken out of service several weeks ago, has been reinstated and sails today for Altamira with 50 passengers from Mazatlan.

JOINT SKYSCRAPER.
COST IS ESTIMATED
Engineers Say It Will Cost
$195,000, and More
Is Available.

No reports on the proposed court-house and city hall combination skyscraper were made at the afternoon session of the county commissioners and city council in joint session Monday. Mayor C. E. Kelly, Judge Elyar and W. S. Clayton said they had nothing to report. However, Clayton said that city engineers had estimated that the cost of such a structure would be about $195,000 and Judge Elyar said more money than that would be available.

County health officer Hugh S. White said that 10 cents is being charged for each consultation at the clinic and this will be almost sufficient to pay for the medicine distributed.

His monthly report showed 33 patients had entered the county hospital during April, 35 had left and 31 remained on May 1, while 70 had been treated there during the month. In the clinic 577 persons had been seen and 1,297 consultations held.

Then the county commissioners went to the First National bank to count the country's money in accordance with the law which requires them to do this once a month.
